Fr Dominic Kavanagh Father Joseph Narikuzhi Deacon Kevin O'Connor

Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C 16th November 2025

Father Dominic writes: 'By patient endurance you will win. We will suffer because of our belief in Christ but God will vindicate us. By patiently enduring suffering we will win life without end and God will prove to us that Christ is everything. This hope of victory keeps us going in times of great trial.(Pope Saint John Sunday Missal.)

Father Joseph, Deacon Kevin and I, take to heart the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, that in the midst of various calamities, Jes will give us the opportunity to bear witness.

Please pray for Cody Aquino and Beth Oliva Allison who are to be baptised into the family of the Church this weekend. This weekend we have a sale of products from the Holy Land, among which you will find some ideal Christmas gifts and cards.

Safeguarding Sunday is an awareness-raising campaign. We will be marking this in our parish at the Masses on the weekend of 15/16th November. In doing this we will be joining thousands of other churches across the UK to share this message and demonstrate unity. We believe that safeguarding is an outworking of our faith in a loving and just God – the God who calls us to speak up on behalf of those who cannot speak for themselves and to defend the rights of the vulnerable (Proverbs 31:8). Please join us in praying for all those who work to ensure our communities and churches are safe for all.

World Day of the Poor Sunday 16th November 2025

In his message for the third World Day of the Poor, celebrated on 17 November 2019, Pope Francis reminded us that “the poor are not numbers, but people”, to be assisted, accompanied, protected, defended and saved. He recalled that this is not possible without the humility of listening, the charism of the whole, the courage of renunciation. He reminded us that to “follow the way of charity, of humility and of listening means lending an ear to the little ones”, because God reveals himself through them. And he asked us not to look down on anyone from above. “You can only look down at a person from above,” he insisted, “in order to help them get up”.

Loving God, Open our ears to hear you in the cry of those living in poverty.

Open our eyes to see you in the lives of the oppressed.

Open our hearts to meet you in others and to respond with mercy and compassion.

Pour out on us your grace, so that we may grow as your faithful people, always seeking your kingdom of Truth, Justice and Peace.

Through Christ Our Lord Amen

Please pray for: Anthony Herron, Antonio Albini (Requiem November 19th 12pm; Reception Tuesday 18th November 5.30pm), Mary Nichol (Funeral Service Robin Hood 21st November, 3pm); Seamus Manley (Requiem Thursday 27th November 11am; Reception Wednesday 26th November 6pm), Sheila Griffin (Olton Friary 28th Nov 10.15am), Phillip Austin Walsh (Requiem Wednesday 10th December 12.00pm; Reception Tuesday 9th December 6pm), Philip Peter John Bates, Michael Donnelly, Alan Gorman, Baby Martin Joseph Smith, Robin Easterby, John Pears, Gilbert Anderson, Delia Finnegan, Donald Platt and Anne Weir who died recently.

New Book Release – Deacon Sean Loone of Our Lady of the Wayside has just had his final book published, entitled 'A Million Reasons to be Angry – Only One to Love'. This personal memoir invites readers on a heartfelt journey, exploring themes of childhood trauma, mental health, and faith, all woven together with a distinctly Irish thread. The book has received glowing praise. In a wonderful gesture, Deacon Loone is donating all profits from the book to charity. The book is available to purchase online from Waterstones, T G Jones, Amazon, and all good bookstores. With Christmas approaching, it would make a thoughtful and meaningful gift for family or friends.
